INTRODUCTION

Congregation: Oh Come, Oh Come, Emmanuel
(TLH 62)

1. Oh, come, Oh, come, Emmanuel,
And ransom captive Israel
That mourns in lonely exile here
Until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

2. Oh, come, Thou Rod of Jesse, free
Thine own from Satan's tyranny;
From depths of hell Thy people save
And give them victory o'er the grave.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

3. Oh, come, Thou Dayspring from on high,
And cheer us by Thy drawing nigh;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night
And death's dark shadows put to flight.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

4. Oh, come, Thou Key of David, come
And open wide our heavenly home:
Make safe the way that leads on high
And close the path to misery.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

Text: Latin hymn, c. 12th century, abr.; tr. John M. Neale, 1818–1866, alt.

Recitation: PreK- 2nd:

Therefore, the Lord Himself will give you a sign: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call His name Immanuel. (Isaiah 7:14)

PreK – 2: Away in a Manger

Narration: Adia

Have you ever heard the phrase “A picture is worth a thousand words”? Sometimes things that are difficult to explain verbally can be better understood when depicted visually. Throughout scripture God uses pictures to teach us about Immanuel, the promised child who saved us from our sin.

1. FROM PROBLEM TO PROMISE

Narration: Preston

In the first book of the Bible—Genesis, chapter 3—we’re told that God created two perfect humans called Adam and Eve. They disobeyed God’s command and brought the corruption of sin into the world. When God gave the first promise of the Savior, he spoke to Satan the tempter, who was in the form of a serpent.

Recitation: Titus & Flynn

I will put enmity Between you and the woman, And between your seed and her Seed; He shall bruise your head, And you shall bruise His heel. (Genesis 3:15).

Narration: Lizzie

The promised Savior would be born from mankind. God paints a picture of this offspring of Eve crushing Satan and all his power underfoot. The serpent was a picture of the evil that came into the world

Lakely

The serpent is also a picture of Jesus. When the Israelite camp was infested with poisonous snakes, God commanded Moses to make a snake of bronze and hang it on a pole before the people. God promised that all who looked at the bronze snake would be spared from death. This is a picture of Jesus who would be lifted up on a cross to save all people.

Recitation: Remy

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life. For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. (John 3:14-16).

2. FROM SACRIFICE TO SUBSTITUTE

Narration: Hunter K.

God appeared to Abraham and promised that his descendants would number as many as the stars in the sky and the sand on the seashore. God also promised that the Savior would be born from his family. Then God asked Abraham to sacrifice his only son Isaac.

Recitation: Wyatt

Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, "My father!" And he said, "Here I am, my son." Then he said, "Look, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" And Abraham said, "My son, God will provide for Himself the lamb for a burnt offering." (Genesis 22:7-8).

Narration: Mason

Isaac did not die that day. As Abraham was about to sacrifice his son, God stopped him and provided a ram as a substitute for Isaac.

Hunter Q

Both Isaac and the ram are pictures of Jesus. Jesus is the perfect sacrifice for us. As God the Father rightfully raises his hand to kill each of us for our sins, he stops himself and provides his own Son as our substitute to die in our place.

Recitation: Reagan

[Jesus] committed no sin, Nor was deceit found in His mouth . . . who Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live for righteousness-- by whose stripes you were healed. (1 Peter 2:22,24).

Congregation: Silent Night! Holy Night! (TLH 96)

1. Silent night! Holy night!

All is calm, all is bright,

Round yon Virgin Mother and Child.

Holy Infant, so tender and mild,

Sleep in heavenly peace,

Sleep in heavenly peace.

2. Silent night! Holy night!
Shepherds quake at the sight;
Glories stream from heaven afar,
Heavenly hosts sing, Alleluia.
Christ, the Savior, is born!
Christ, the Savior, is born!

3. Silent night! Holy night!
Son of God, love's pure light
Radiant beams from Thy holy face,
With the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth.
Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth.

Text: Joseph Mohr, 1818; tr. unknown

3. FROM LAMB TO LOVING SACRIFICE

Narration: Ryker

The grandson of Abraham was Jacob, to whom God gave the name Israel. His descendants became the nation of Israel, and they were enslaved in Egypt for hundreds of years. God used the nation's exodus from Egypt as yet another illustration that points to our Savior, the Lamb of God. On the night before the Israelites were freed from slavery, God gave the following instructions to Moses:

Recitation: Jackson

Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

On the tenth day of this month every man shall take for himself a lamb.

And they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses where they eat it.

Ellie & Millie & Remy

The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you; and the plague shall not be on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt. (Exodus 12:1,3,7,13)

Narration: Grace

The blood of the slaughtered lamb protected the Israelites from the righteous wrath of God. Centuries later John the Baptist, who was Jesus' cousin, pointed to Jesus as the perfect sacrifice whose blood would cleanse the world from their sins. Recalling the final plague in Egypt and the blood of the lamb by which God's people were saved from death, John points to Jesus with these words:

Recitation: K-2

The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, "Behold! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! (John 1:29)

Children: All My Heart This Night Rejoices
(TLH 77:1,3,6,7)

4. FROM BRANCH TO BETHLEHEM

Narration: Sophia

After delivering his people from slavery in Egypt, God led the nation of Israel to the land of Canaan. Here, Jesse's son David would one day rule the nation of Israel. The prophet Isaiah tells us that the line of David would be the stump from which the branch of the promised Savior would come forth.

Recitation: Sawyer P

There shall come forth a Rod from the stem of Jesse, And a Branch shall grow out of his roots. The Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon Him, The Spirit of wisdom and understanding, The Spirit of counsel and might, The Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD. His delight is in the fear of the LORD (Isaiah 11:1-3).

Narration: Sawyer K & Mari

The prophet Micah points to the Messiah who would be born in Bethlehem, the town of King David.

Recitation: Andy

But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, Though you are little among the thousands of Judah, Yet out of you shall come forth to Me The One to be Ruler in Israel, Whose goings forth are from of old, From everlasting. (Micah 5:2)

K-8 Christmas Story Part 1

And it came to pass in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. This census first took place while Quirinius was governing Syria. So all went to be registered, everyone to his own city. Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be registered with Mary, his betrothed wife, who was with child. So it was, that while they were there, the days were completed for her to be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. (Luke 2:1-7)

Children: Behold, a Branch Is Growing (TLH 645:1-3,5)

5. FROM MAJESTY TO MANGER

Narration: Wyatt

When the time came for the Savior to come to earth, he was born and placed in a manger. Isaiah clearly shows us this is no ordinary baby. He came from heaven and became human, born of a virgin. He is God with us: Immanuel.

Recitation: Mason

For unto us a Child is born, Unto us a Son is given; And the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. (Isaiah 9:6).

3-8: Christmas Story Part 2

Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. And behold, an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were greatly afraid. Then the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which will be to all people. For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying: "Glory to God in the highest, And on earth peace, goodwill toward men!" (Luke 2:8-14)

6-8: Christmas Story Part 3

So it was, when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, "Let us now go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us." And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger. Now when they had seen Him, they made widely known the saying which was told them concerning this Child. And all those who heard it marveled at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart. Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told them. (Luke 2:15-20)

4. Can I, will I forget how love was born, and burned its way into my heart unasked, unforced, unearned,
to die, to live, and not alone for me,
to die, to live, and not alone for me?

6. FROM JONAH TO ETERNAL JOY

Narration: Isabella

The birth of the Savior would be meaningless had he not completed the work he came to accomplish. Jesus himself pointed to his own death and resurrection when he talked with the Pharisees and the teachers of the law about the sign of Jonah.

Recitation: Andy

For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. (Matthew 12:40).

Narration: Preston

The final illustration of Immanuel points to his death and victory over the grave. Jesus completed the work of salvation when he rose from the dead. He crushed the power of Satan and proclaimed victory over death. Through His resurrection we too will live eternally in heaven.

Recitation: Ryker

But now Christ is risen from the dead, and has become the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since by man came death, by Man also came the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ all shall be made alive. (1 Corinthians 15:20-22)

Narration: Adia

God's pictures point us to his Son, Jesus—the King of kings who came from heaven and was born in a manger. He became one of us. He lived perfectly in our place. He suffered the punishment of our sin. He rose again from the dead. Because of all this, we are have victory over sin and death and promised eternal joy in heaven, where we will join to sing the praises of the King of kings forever.

Children: Now Sing We, Now Rejoice (TLH 92)OFFERING, PRAYER, AND LORD'S PRAYER

P . . . in whose name we join to prayer:

all Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you. The Lord lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace. Amen

Congregation: “Joy to the World” (TLH 87)

1. Joy to the world, the Lord is come!

Let earth receive her King;

Let every heart prepare Him room

And heaven and nature sing.

2. Joy to the earth, the Savior reigns!

Let men their songs employ,

While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains

Repeat the sounding joy.

3. No more let sins and sorrows grow
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make His blessings flow
Far as the curse is found.

4. He rules the world with truth and grace
And makes the nations prove
The glories of His righteousness
And wonders of His love.

THANK YOU

Thank you for joining us today.

We hope you are able to return and celebrate our Savior's birth tomorrow morning at 10am.

Thank you to all the children and their parents who worked so hard to make tonight possible.

We pray the joy of our Savior's birth may live in your hearts.
